Those present

Ron Gore (chair)
Sue Farrow
David Edwardson
Peter Bishop
Clare Cuckson
Lee Hoggarth

- 36/16/17 Apologies received from David Forrest
- 37/16/17 The minutes of the meeting held on 24 May were agreed and signed as a true record. An amendment was made to 35/16/17 (a)
- 38/16/17 Matters arising
- a. The damaged mph sign was to be replaced.
  - b. The work to the cottage had been completed by local builder's L Hutchinson. A cheque for £1,010.11 was signed as payment for the work
  - c. RG was meeting Paul Goring to discuss the renovation of the phone box. It was estimated that the cost would be approximately £1,000
- 39/16/17 There was a lengthy discussion about the fence/hedge around the parish cottage. It was agreed that a fencing/hedging firm would be contacted to provide quotes for the work
- 40/16/17 Any other business
- a. The 2017 return had been received from the external auditor. It was noted that the current account was high. This was to enable further work to be done on the cottage.
  - b. The hedge on Westgate was overhanging the path and needed cutting back. RG would contact DF and ask him to trim it back
  - c. The gutters alongside the road on the High Street were full of weeds even though the WLDC cleaner wagon had recently been in the village. The clerk would contact WLDC for an update
  - d. There had been no further progress on the replacement of the clerk. RG would organise a leaflet drop for interested persons

The meeting concluded at 7:30
