Sue Farrow
David Edwardson
David Forrest

- 13/16/17 Apologies received from Lee Hogarth and Peter Bishop
- 14/16/17 The minutes of the meeting held on 1 September 2016 were agreed and signed as a true record
- 15/16/17 Matters arising
- a. RG had attended a meeting with the Upton Parish Council regarding the purchase of a speed inhibitor for use in both parishes. CC and LH were also in attendance. There was a general discussion regarding the potential use of various devices. It was agreed that it would be beneficial to borrow a hand held device to ascertain where a speed inhibitor would be sited. There was also a discussion regarding the lowering of the speed limit on Upton Road from 40 to 30mph. The clerk would write to the LCC to find out the procedure for such a move.
 - b. RG reported that he had applied for a defibrillator from WLDC which would be sited at the village hall. He would bring further details to the PC if the application is accepted
 - c. RG had had a meeting with the builder Hutchinson who will quote on the repair of the phone box. There are two options the first to move it and have it sandblasted. The site would then be cleared repaired and the box resited. The second option would have it cleaned up in situ. It was decided that the first option was more suitable. RG proposed and SF seconded and all agreed with this motion
- 16/16/17 The members considered the precept for 2017/18. It was proposed that it be kept at £2,000 which was the same level as previous years. Although there were monies in the current account it was envisaged that much of this would be used for the speed inhibitor repair of the phone box and the cottage. DF proposed and DE seconded and all agreed. The clerk would notify WLDC.

17/16/17 The clerk reported that she had been contacted by the tenant of the cottage that he was having problems with damp. RG said he would visit the tenant to assess the problem

18/16/17 Any other business
SF asked if the details regarding the Christmas market could be advertised on the website. The market will be held on 8 December from 6pm at the Rose & Crown in Upton

This concluded the business and the meeting closed at 20:45. Next meeting 5 January 2017
